

DAY FIVE

Let me tell you about what happened to me.

PRAYER – Father thank You for being in my life. I want to thank You that I have a relationship with You through Jesus Christ. I still remember the time that I invited You into my life. Lord will You help me to tell someone else about what You have done for me. Thank you that I have a story. In Jesus Name, Amen.

WORD – Read Acts 4:20. “For we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

When something good happens in your life you can't help telling others about it. They are usually really glad to share in your story. The greatest thing that could ever happen in anyone's life is for them to meet Jesus and have their sins forgiven. I know when that happened to me. People can argue religion and the Bible and church and all kinds of things, but they can't argue about what happened inside you. You have a story to tell. People deserve to hear your story. It is a common story among believers but it has a special twist. The twist is that it is about you and how you invited Jesus Christ into your life. It is about the difference that it is making in your life. You might have some friends who need to hear this statement. “Let me tell you about what happened to me.”

CHALLENGE – Take a piece of paper and answer these questions. How was my life before I met Jesus Christ? How did I invite Christ into my life? What difference is Christ making in my life right now? These questions will help you formulate your story. It is then up to you to tell it.
